Enter the 30th Annual Mendes Hershman Student Writing Contest for a chance to win up to $2,500 and an all-expenses-paid trip to the Business Law Section Spring Meeting in Montréal, QC, Canada, April 7-9, 2016.

All students enrolled in an ABA-accredited law school are eligible to submit original papers authored during the current academic year, which cover a topical business law subject. Submissions may be prepared specifically for this contest; repurposed from a class, seminar, or as an independent study; or developed as a proposed law review/journal note, comment, or article.

Membership in the ABA & Business Law Section is not required for entry. Visit ambar.org/BLstudentwriting for more information.

2015 WINNING TITLES & AUTHORS

1ST PLACE
Structural Foundations of Financial Stability: What Canada can Teach America About Building a Better Regulatory System
LEV BREYADO | UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA, PHILADELPHIA, PA

2ND PLACE
Old Fashion Deterrence: Why the SEC’s New Policy Could Actually “Bring the Swagger Back” to the Commission
MARY M. SHEPRO | NORTE DAME LAW, SOUTH BEND, IN

3RD PLACE
Employers and the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act: Mending an Onerous Relationship
CHRISTIAN DENNIS | GEORGIA STATE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF LAW, ATLANTA, GA

APPLICATION DEADLINE: JANUARY 16, 2016

Explore all the topics your submission can cover at ababusinesslaw.org.